Services and the United States of America

The importance of the service sector to the United States is illustrated vividly by recently-released data from the US Bureau of the Census. Census data show that the services sector employs 79% of the US workforce, in industries such as wholesale and retail trade, transportation & warehousing, finance & insurance, real estate, renting, & leasing, professional services, and many others. Services account for 76% of the country's $3.7 trillion payroll, and represent 73% of the $21 trillion in sales from the country's business establishments.
